Write a mini bio about yourself. This is a chance for us to get to know you! Please include where you are originally from, who is in your life, what you do, and what is important to you.

12 My name is Zack Untalan and I am 39 years old from San Francisco, California. I currently live in LA where I am a professional dancer and student. My family and friend are big part of my life and I love cooking for them. Being surrounded by happiness and health for all people in my life.

Please tell us about your current living situation. (ie. - do you live with a roommate(s), family members, etc?)

13 I live in North Hollywood where I shared a space with my brother. He flies back a forth from NY and he has a room to stay when ever he works in LA

How would you rate your cooking skills (on a scale of 1-10 / 10 being the best!) Explain your answer.

14 I would rate my cook g at 8.7/10. I have been cooking f since I was $ but I know there is always from to grow and learn.

How often do you cook for other people? Explain. (How often, how many people, who is it that you usually cook for?)

15 I cook for my family and friend often. I enjoy feeding people and having them try my food.

Tell us about a meal you are particularly proud of making. Why does this one stand out for you?

- 16 Last Christmas, I created a menu with my uncle and I was the head chef. I chose to make Porchetta, cioppino, focaccia, chicory salad, and beef filet. It was really good.

This show is all about cooks who have a talent for cooking on a budget. Tell us about your ability to create food on a budget. How did you learn?

- 17 When I was younger I was in charge of cooking dinners since my dad was a fire fighter and my mom had a full time job as well. I would find the challenge of creating a dish with the ingredients we already have a small budget to get things at the store. I learned these skills because growing up with not a lot of money we would have to get creative with the dishes we made each day.

Was there a specific event in your life that led you to acquire this skill?

- 18 I have acquired these skills over time and have picked up tips and tricks to save money when budgeting for meals.

What are the top tips or tricks that you have picked up along the way that you routinely use when cooking on a budget? Please explain. ***

- 19 The top trick that I would say I order to save money is shop sales and get proteins in bulk. When you have protein in bulk it gives you more options to transform the protein into many different meals through out the week.

What dish are you known for? Tell us about it!

- 20 I am known for making pork sisig and Hainan chicken. Both have a ton of love and my family and friends love it.

Have you ever appeared in television programs, films, webisodes, commercials or advertisements of any kind? If so, please provide the project name, where it aired, and the approximate date(s) of airing.

- 21 I work in the entertainment industry and have been in commercials, tv shows, music videos but I nothing is coming out soon.

Do you have any food allergies we should be aware of?

- 22 No

Please upload a non-professional photo of yourself where we can see you clearly. (no sunglasses or hats)
